WINNING SPEAKER — Edna Nerona, a Rancho Bernardo graphic designer, recently won the Best Speaker award in the Innovative Speakers Toastmasters' Tall Tales and Table Topics contests held at Sony in Rancho Bernardo. During the Tall Tales contest, Nerona told the 'deepest details' about the 100 shoes in her closet as part of the fictional story 'Coming out of the closet,' while displaying some of the shoes that are part of her fondest memories. For Table Topics, the recently engaged Nerona used her personal experience to say 'yes' to the randomly drawn question, 'Is there only one soulmate for each person?' Nerona advanced to the Central Division competition on Oct. 13 at Cymer Inc. in Rancho Bernardo.
